

Application No. 428: Warming up baby clothes

Author: O.H., Bern, Switzerland

A (heart)warming application for the cold winter

Our youngster always has warm clothes because we use silver magnetic clips (www.supermagnete.fr/eng/LIV-17) to hang up baby clothes on the radiator.

Note from the supermagnete team:

Our magnetic clips (available in many styles) also work well for hanging up wet gloves, hats or small laundry to dry on the radiator. Clips work better than raw neodymium magnets because these can start to rust over time when exposed to water. Alternatively, you can also work with waterproof neodymium magnets (www.supermagnete.fr/eng/group/rubber_coated).
